Food

Food is a local issue, a global issue, a development, health, political and economic issue. This program asks: how can we design a food system that ensures health, accessibility and affordability for everyone: urban and rural, North and South? (49 min.)

Discussion facilitator:

Sara Salo, School Food Tour
Join us to welcome Sara back after her 6,000-mile cross country solo bike trip to promote student wellness through healthy school lunches and cycling.
